THREE DECADES OF PRO-LIFE WORK ON BEHALF OF UNBORN BABIES

On January 22, 1973, the Supreme Court's Roe v. Wade decision ignited a national debate that is every bit as intense and passionate today as it was 30 years ago. While the national media insisted the abortion issue was "settled," in truth the Court's blatant disregard for both unborn human life and the Constitution provided the impetus for the creation of the greatest social justice movement of our times: the Pro-Life Movement.

NRL News's Special January 2003 issue commemorates the work of the Pro-Life Movement and examines the lessons learned and the progress made over three decades of selfless dedication to unborn children and the medically dependent elderly. This Special Edition will cover important aspects of this historic battle, including

"Penumbras and Emanations": Questions and Answers about Harry Blackmun's Roe v. Wade

The Slippery Slope in Action: From Abortion to Euthanasia to Fetal Stem Cell Research

Abortion Hurts Women: The Evidence Mounts

The Invaluable Contributions of Pro-life Presidents, from Ronald Reagan to George W. Bush

Present at the Creation: National Right to Life

Abortion and Euthanasia 101: A Beginner's Guide

How and Why Roe Dramatically Increased the Number of Abortions

Shutting the Lid on Pandora's Box: How to Defeat Euthanasia and Assisted Suicide

Enlarging the Coalition: The Movement's Debt to Francis Schaeffer and C. Everett Koop

Rhetoric of Freedom: Pro-Life Quotations from the Past 30 years

Editorial Cartoons: Recognition in a Flash

Why Young People Are Increasingly Pro-Life
